

Enterprise Resource Planning(ERP)

- Possess a comprehensive understanding of account management and security protocols
- Served as a mentor and senior resource for junior developers, providing guidance, fostering skill development, and facilitating a collaborative learning environment to support the professional growth of team members
- Performs code review and quality assurance on developed code to ensure efficiency, accuracy, and compliance with set standards before migration to production
- Proficient in utilizing Jasper Reports to create detailed and visually appealing reports, vouchers, barcodes and export in both PDF and Excel formats
- Experience in cross-domain integration, connecting API from the first server to retrieve web pages and incorporating iFrame from the second server, showcasing proficiency in seamless integration across diverse domains.
- Implemented measures to control concurrent user access, ensuring a secure environment where a single user account is restricted to login on only one device at a time
- Designed and implemented automated processes for database building, backup, restore, update, and user creation, streamlining operations and ensuring database integrity and security.
- Code Combine and Develop Using GitLab
- Experience with Cloud Services, Azure (For deployment)

License and Database Controlling System - License and Database Controlling System being designed specifically to handle repetitive manual tasks, it suggests that the system is intended to processes related to managing licenses and controlling databases.

- Designed and implemented automated processes for database building, backup, restore, update, and user creation, streamlining operations and ensuring database integrity and security
- License management, including tracking license usage, renewals, and compliance.
- Administered user account expiration through effective authentication and authorization procedures, ensuring secure and controlled access management

Asset Management System(ASM)

- Maintain and debug for Error Detection and Correction
- Proficient in preparing Report (jasper)